Langley Family Housing is an amenity rich military community located in the birthplace of Colonial America, historic southeastern Virginia's Hampton Roads. Our residents enjoy unique and tranquil living on base in Hampton or off base in York County while nestled closely to the vibrant life Hampton Roads has to offer. The community is comprised of five distinct neighborhoods, set apart by their unique architectural features, various floor plans, and monument signage. Community is an important part of Langley Family Housing. Our energy efficient planning is family-friendly and designed to promote community through common spaces such as parks, playgrounds, a pool, and community centers. All of this makes Langley a great place to call home.

Hunt is a leading national real estate services company headquartered in El Paso, Texas. Deeply focused in its core areas of public private partnership, military housing, community development, real asset investment management and multifamily housing, Hunt is dedicated to building values through development, investment and management.

Founded in 1947, Hunt is firmly rooted in a legacy of leadership, integrity, and trust. For over 40 years, the company has focused on quality of design, construction, and development of military housing for the various branches of the United States military across the continental U.S., Hawaii and Alaska.

With over 36,000 housing units spread across 30 projects, Hunt prides itself on providing our Service Members and their families with a civilian-comparable, high-quality residential living experience.
