

Waiting List / Eligibility Date is Determined According to the Following Criteria**

- If you are arriving to Beale AFB and apply for housing by email or by visiting the Military Housing Office (MHO), your waiting list/eligibility date will be the day you out-processed your previous duty station (not to exceed 30 days after you have arrived on-station)
- If you are arriving to Beale AFB and do not apply for on-base housing within 30 days after your departure from your previous duty station, your waiting list/eligibility date is the date you submit your application, either by email or by visiting MHO
- If you are arriving to Beale AFB from an Unaccompanied Dependent Restricted (UDR) Tour, (i.e. Republic of Korea, Incirlik Air Base, or Lajes Field) or from an Area of Responsibility (AOR) for a consecutive 365 days, you must submit orders from both duty stations to receive priority placement and tour credit, which will be based off of the day you departed to the UDR/AOR
- If you are arriving to Beale AFB with an Impending Entitlement, such as a promotion or an increase in the number of dependents, supporting documentation must be provided. Promotion eligibility can be validated with a promotion eligibility notification from vMPF, and a physician's statement to confirm pregnancy is required, as applicable for the claimed entitlement. Once received, you will be placed on the respective housing category's waiting list
- If you are coming from Tech School and you are married, your waiting list/eligibility date will be your Class Graduation Date
- If you are single, have less than 3 years of service, and currently reside in Unaccompanied Housing, but will be getting married within 60 days – a Letter of Intent to Marry and a complete housing application is required to be placed on the waiting list. The member may be assigned housing upon the actual marriage date, when authorized with-dependent rate
- If you are single and are pregnant, you may apply for housing 60 days before the expected delivery date. A physician's statement to certify pregnancy and anticipated delivery date is required. The member may be assigned housing upon the actual delivery date, when authorized with-dependent BAH
- Lastly, all single members who have at least 3 years of Time in Service are eligible for on/off base housing. All single members with less than 3 years of Time in Service will report to their Airman Dorm Leaders or Unaccompanied Housing Superintendent to determine off-base eligibility dates. The Unaccompanied Housing contact numbers are as follows: DSN 312-368-2266 or commercial (530) 634-2266
